HEALTHY ALL YEAR

Healthy weight strategies

Keeping your weight within a healthy range can help lower your risk of heart disease, cancer and more. Check out five small lifestyle changes that can make a big difference in your health. Can't make all the changes? Start with one and work your way up. Each can help bring you one step closer to reaching your health goals.

1 Eat more fruits and veggies

It's tough to make every meal perfectly healthy. Small steps make a big difference. Adding a tomato to your sandwich or strawberries to your yogurt counts.

2 Choose high-fiber foods

Fiber fills you up so you're less hungry between meals. Get fiber from veggies like green beans and cauliflower. Or grains like oatmeal.

3 Drink more water

It's no secret that water is a key part of good health. But what if you don't like the taste?

Try retraining your taste buds by adding fruit to your water.

4 Keep moving

It is recommended that adults get at least 2.5 hours of moderate-intensity activity each week, such as brisk walking or dancing.¹ This can help you reach a healthy weight. Always talk to your doctor before starting a new exercise program.

5 Stick to your schedule

Don't let the clock tell you what time to eat. Pick a time to eat your meals or have your snack when it works for you.

Buying groceries? Read this first!

You can use the monthly benefit amount (allowance) on your Aetna® Medicare Extra Benefits Card to buy select healthy foods at approved locations. Select credit, not debit, at checkout. No PIN needed.

Your breathe-easy action plan

If you have asthma, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD) or even seasonal allergies, an action plan can help you prepare for a flare-up. Your primary care provider (PCP) can help you develop one that meets your personal health needs. Follow these steps to breathe easier in the meantime.

Learn what makes it harder to breathe

Pay attention to things that make you cough or wheeze. Symptoms might get worse because of air pollution, tobacco smoke, allergies like pollen or other triggers.

Plan ahead

Avoid your triggers whenever possible. Close windows and take a shower after coming inside to keep outdoor allergens away. And have your medication on hand to help manage symptoms whenever you are outside. You can also bring a mask outdoors to help keep allergens out of your mouth and nose.

Take your medication

Over-the-counter (OTC) antihistamines and sprays can help with seasonal allergies. Talk to your doctor to see if there are good options for your PCP to prescribe medications for asthma and COPD. Or call your care team to see what options are best for you and what medications you should avoid.
